

REQUEST FOR QUOTATION

Build of Industrial unit extension to rear of existing unit at L34 1QN

Background

Harrison Collier is a Company that designs and manufactures bespoke handmade kitchens and interior cabinetry and has been based in Prescot, Merseyside for over 30 years.

The company has operated from industrial units at 4 & 5 Ropers Court, Prescot Business Park L34 1QN since 2008.

Due to steady growth over the years the company is looking to undertake an investment project at their existing premises. This involves building an extension to the rear of one of the existing units. This will provide additional space to increase staff numbers and output for the business.

Requirement

The project would consist of the following:

1. Preparation of site at rear of existing property where extension is to be built.
2. Building industrial unit extension.
3. Knocking through to existing factory premises

Full details and site visit arrangements can be requested from admin@harrisoncollier.co.uk

Deliverable Timescale

We expect the project to commence no later than September 2022, and to be completed by 31st December 2022.

Indicative Budget

Costs are expected to be between £75,000 and £100,000

Evaluation Criteria

Quotations will be assessed and scored on the following criteria:
